

RIS

Research and Information System
for Developing Countries

विकासशील देशों की अनुसन्धान एवं सूचना प्रणाली

Call for Application for Research Assistant Position

RIS Project on Science Diplomacy

RIS is looking for a Research Assistant to contribute to its on-going DST-sponsored Project on Science Diplomacy. The duration of the project is three years.

Eligibility: The candidate should be MA/MPhil. in Science Policy/International Affairs/S&T and Strategic Affairs. Candidates with Ph.D and experience in relevant disciplines will be given preference.

Remuneration: Rs. 55,000/- per month, all inclusive.

Nature of engagement: On contractual basis. Initially, the appointment would be for one year, including a probation period of three months. On successful completion of probation, the term would be extended for the rest of the year. Subsequent renewal of tenure would be subject to periodical comprehensive evaluation of performance taking into consideration the quality of research contribution, efficiency and adherence to completion of assigned tasks within predefined time frames.

Interested candidates may send their CVs and scan copies of other supporting documents, including academic qualification and experience certificates latest by 25th September, 2019 to the Director General, RIS. E-mail: dgoffice@ris.org.in

Eligible and shortlisted candidates would be called in for interview by the Selection Committee. The decision of the Selection Committee of RIS would be final and no correspondence in this regard would be entertained. No payment for appearing in the interview would be made by RIS.

Subject line: Application for Research Assistant: Science Diplomacy Project