

Fifth RIS-EXIM Bank Summer School on International Trade Theory and Practice (10-19 June 2020)

Venue: Multipurpose Hall, International Centre,
Max Muller Marg, New Delhi 110003.

In order to contribute towards capacity building of scholars working in the field of international trade, RIS, in association with the Export-Import Bank of India (Exim Bank), would be organising the Fifth edition of the Summer School programme in New Delhi during the period June 10-19, 2020, which is open to M.Phil and Ph.D. students specialising in international trade.

RIS is a premier policy research organisation working on international economic issues. Over the years, RIS has gained prominence for its contribution to research and policy in areas like multilateral trading system, regional trading arrangements, comprehensive economic cooperation architecture, South-South Cooperation, etc. among others. Trade, Technology and Investment issues define the core expertise of the institution leading to several research studies and deliberations.

Exim Bank is the premier export finance institution of the country set up to finance, facilitate and promote India's international trade. As a part of its ongoing efforts to promote economic research and academic excellence, Exim Bank has also taken several initiatives to encourage scholars to undertake focussed economic research studies in various aspects, especially related to international trade and investment.

About the Summer School

Eligibility: Candidate must have a master degree in economics and be registered as a M.Phil./Ph.D. student with any recognised Indian University with specialisation in international trade.

Last date of receipt of application:
15 May 2020

To download Application Form click here

Course Structure

The following modules would be covered during the course by experts:

- Module 1 : Recent Developments in Trade Theory
- Module 2 : Tools and Techniques in Trade Analysis
- Module 3 : Understanding FTAs and Regional Trading Blocs
- Module 4 : Trade in Technology and Classification Issues
- Module 5 : Trade and Development: IPRs and New Issues
- Module 6 : Group Presentations

SELECTION PROCEDURE

Interested candidates are requested to e-mail duly filled up attached Application Form to RIS at dgoffice@ris.org.in, latest by 15 May 2020. Selected candidates would be required to furnish copies of their qualification certificates, along with an undertaking that they would be attending the course in full and participate in all lectures and activities. The decision of RIS on the selection of suitable candidates will be final in all respects and no correspondence would be entertained in this regard.

TRAVEL AND MEALS

Selected candidates outside the NCR region would be reimbursed 2-way AC-II tier train fare or its equivalent on production of receipts. RIS would arrange single room accommodation, meals, along with local transport for their travel to the venue of the course and vice versa.