RIS-EXIM Bank Summer School on International Trade Theory and Practices (11-18 June 2018)

In order to contribute towards capacity building of scholars working in the field of international trade, RIS, in association with the Export-Import Bank of India (Exim Bank), would be organising the third edition of the Summer School programme in New Delhi during the period June 11-16, 2018, which is open to M.Phil and Ph.D. students specialising in international trade.

RIS is a premier policy research organisation working on international economic issues. Over the years RIS has gained prominence for its contribution to research and policy in areas like multilateral trading system, regional trading arrangements, comprehensive economic cooperation architecture, and South-South Cooperation. Trade, Technology and Investment issues define the core expertise of the institution leading to several research studies and deliberations.

Exim Bank is the premier export finance institution of the country set up to finance, facilitate and promote India's international trade. As a part of its ongoing efforts to promote economic research and academic excellence, Exim Bank has also taken several initiatives to encourage scholars to undertake focussed economic research studies in various aspects, especially related to international trade and investment.
